CHIME THROUGH THE YEARS

“YOUR FLOWERS DID NOT FADE” BY CHRISTIN CHAE FOR CONNECTHER

CHIME FOR CHANGE Through the Years: The Female Fabric is a series curated by CHIME Managing Editor Mariane Pearl featuring stories from the CHIME journalism platform archives by women around the world.

“Your Flowers Did Not Fade” tackles the Comfort Women Issue that is still an ongoing problem. The victims share their deep, personal stories of their youth to inform the world about the horrors of sex trafficking. Efforts to fight for their rights continue.

The ConnectHER Film Festival provides a powerful platform for young storytellers to highlight critical issues facing women and girls.

Students submit original short (3 to 6 minute) films focused on issues such as girls' global education, ending violence against women, redefining beauty, and girls in tech.

Growing up in two different countries, South Korea and America has inspired me to see the world in two different ways. I hope to become an impact filmmaker, where my films are made for those whose voices need to be heard."
