CHIME THROUGH THE YEARS

“IN AND OUT OF EXTREMISM” BY YASMIN MALBOCUS

CHIME FOR CHANGE Through the Years: The Female Fabric is a series curated by CHIME Managing Editor Mariane Pearl featuring stories from the CHIME journalism platform archives by women around the world.

Yasmin Mulbocus used to be a recruiter for an extremist group. Now she’s doing everything she can to fight against radicalization and terrorism—find out why in our latest Fuuse Voices video.

Fuuse Voices is an online video series that highlights the stories and work of people who are doing their best to make positive changes on the most important issues in the world today. Fuuse Voices is an extensive global collection of video content featuring some of the unsung heroes working for peace, justice, equality and freedom. From activists, artists, academics, journalists to teachers, Fuuse Voices celebrates their dedication through creating a library of inspirational speakers.
